EDITORIAL

This is a contentious election, and the biggest in Brant County history. So why are so many of us staying home?

Too many people say they plan to vote. Then the deadline comes and goes and they never do. That has to stop.

It cannot get any easier. Grab your phone. Go to brant.simplyvoting.com and enter the PIN from your Voter Information Letter.

As of 5:42 p.m. Saturday, only 6,139 of 36,638 electors had voted. That is 16.8%. You can vote today and on Monday, October 26.

Voting closes at 8 p.m. on Monday, October 26. No more excuses.

If you're going to vote, vote here. ►

VOTE IN THE POLL ☒ ONE VOTE PER PERSON

VOTING WORKS LIKE THIS: vote on the paper website at w4d2026.github.io/mock-election. One vote per person.

Polls close at midnight tonight (Sunday). Results will be released Monday, election day.

This mock election is informal and unscientific. It is not an official result and it is not a County ballot. Candidates are listed alphabetically by last name. The Ward Four Daily is not endorsing anyone.

A BURFORD TRADITION

Harris Jewellers

BURFORD ♦ ONTARIO

Built here.

Family owned since Christmas 1945.

After serving in the Royal Canadian Air Force in the Second World War, J. Pryor Harris moved to Burford and opened a jewellery shop in 1945. More than 80 years later, Harris Jewellers is still family owned and operated, and still known for quality goods, personal service and repairs of all types.

Diamond rings, watches and fine jewellery. Grandfather, wall and mantle clocks. Come in, say hello, and see why it is worth the short drive.

OUR SOURCES: HOW WE GATHER THE NEWS

The Ward Four Daily is a community page.

It is full of public links that we gather from people's websites, so you can go straight to the original source.

This page is our public disclaimer of where we get our information from.

We are not the writers of this information. We share it to get the news out to Ward 4 and the County of Brant.

We review it, and it's reviewed by a human before we put it out.
